'Public Order' and 'Police' are State subjects as per the Constitution of India and hence maintenance of law and order as well as communal harmony are the primary concern of the State Governments. In so far as the Union Government are concerned, the Government have been providing assistance to the State Governments in a variety of ways to tackle the issues causing communal cleavage - both administrative and promotional - in a sustained manner i.e. assistance in improving their policing infrastructure, sending alert messages periodically, sharing intelligence with them, providing Central Para-military Forces including the composite Rapid Action Force on specific request and issuing guidelines from time to time to promote communal harmony.

The activities of all organisations having a bearing on maintenance of communal harmony are under constant watch of law enforcement agencies and requisite legal action is taken, wherever necessary.
